"One another" is found 100 times in the New Testament!
If we are going to genuinely be about others we must have the,

1. Right _____ (vv 1-4)

- A. The _____ ambition is not a "what" but a "Who." (vv 1-2)
B. _____ of Christ residing and presiding in us, our ambition will always move us to care for others. (vv 3-4)

Do I have the right ambition? Answer these questions:

1. Why do I do what I do?
2. Why do I say what I say?
3. Would I rather ask others how they are, or share with others how I am?
("Here I am!" or "There you are!")
4. Do I joyfully put others before me?
5. Do I like to see others succeed or win, even if I don't?

2. Right _____ (vv 5-11)

- A. We are _____ to adopt the same attitude as Christ.
B. The _____ attitude moves us to be right and do right in a wrong world.

Do you have the right attitude? Answer these questions:

1. Do you find your worth in the Lord or the world? Jesus knew where His worth came from.
2. Is your attitude affected more by what position you have or what possibilities you have to make a difference where you are now?
3. As you minister to others, is your greatest desire that people see and experience Jesus, or be indebted to you?

3. Right _____ (vv 12-16)

A. The right approach in ministering to others calls for working out our salvation with fear, joy and a godly witness.

1. _____ toward God v 12.
2. _____ within vv 13-14.
3. A godly _____ without vv 15-16a.

B. Does your approach to others bring _____ to the Lord and cause others to draw closer to the Lord?

This week, I will go One Step Further:

In my walk with Christ by:

1. _____ to have the attitude of Christ toward others. How? Memorize

Philippians 2:5-11

In my walk with others by:

2. _____ with others in a small group class.
3. _____ with others in a ministry in our church.
