To deal with conflict:

1. _____ vv 12-21

A. James showed great wisdom in handling this potentially toxic issue.

1. After listening vv 12-15.
2. On the basis of Scripture vv 16-18.

James would confront the conflict with Scripture - and Scripture in context.

3. Defending the Gospel v 19.

Grace needs no additive to help save a soul. It is enough. It is sufficient.

4. Protecting the fellowship vv 20-21.

B. Conflict must be confronted - and confronted the right way.

2. _____ vv 22-29

A. Though the issue was addressed, some of the affected parties still had no conclusion to the conflict.

1. The truth.
2. The problems v 24.
3. The decision vv 25-29a.
4. Not a lot of fluff v 29b.

B. Communicating the answer to the conflict is extremely important - and doesn't have to be overly difficult.

3. _____ vv 30-35

A. The goal of the leaders in Jerusalem was for a win-win outcome.

1. With reputable witnesses.

When you have credibility, you can do a lot and say a lot. When you don't have credibility, it doesn't matter what you say or do.

2. With encouragement v 32.

Never underestimate the step of confronting conflict and giving encouragement on the other side to build up what is right.

3. Until the issue is settled (not just addressed) v 33.

B. Peace is the marker for a settled conflict.
