I am asking the Lord to help you grow a heart for prayer. Only God can work your heart to help you have a life of, and longing for, prayer.

It's never too late for a new beginning, and there's an extremely important key.

1. _____ (vv 1-9)

A. The _____ of Manasseh had no comparison in his day.

B. Just because your life may be _____ with rebellion, God has a _____ to have a relationship with you.

2. _____ (vv 10-11)

A. God's reproof _____ because Manasseh wouldn't listen. 2 Kings 21:10-15

B. A wonderful _____ act of the Lord is His reproof.

"Do not despise the Lord's instruction, my son, and do not loathe his discipline; for the Lord disciplines the one he loves, just as a father disciplines the son in whom he delights."

Proverbs 3:11-12

3. _____ vv 12-13

A. Manasseh came to his senses and _____ of his sin.

B. When we _____ that no one deserves God's forgiveness, that's when we'll understand the great gift and value of _____. God forgave this man because he repented.

If you will repent, the Lord will forgive. If you will agree with God that your sin is sin, God will do a marvelous and gracious and merciful work in you!

4. _____ and _____ (vv 14-17)

A. Manasseh's repentance was clear by the unquestionable change in his _____ and _____.

B. It's true that _____ people, hurt people. It's also true that _____ people, restore people.

What now?

1. You get to _____ your choices, not your consequences.

2. Mom, Dad, don't lose heart in _____ for your prodigal.

3. The key to a growing walk with God is _____ and _____.

4. _____ when others repent - especially those that may surprise you.
