1. A lesson from _____: Prayer must be priority. (vv 22-23)

A. Communion with the Father was always top priority for Jesus.

B. What is your first reaction when something great happens? What is your first reaction when something tough happens?

2. A lesson from _____: What we call a storm may be God's training ground for our faith. (vv 24-27)

A. The disciples were right where the Lord sent them.

1. Jesus showed up at the right time walking on the storm-tossed water.

2. It's easy to misunderstand what is going on in the middle of a storm.

3. It's a great time to listen to the Lord. "Have courage. It is I. Don't be afraid."

B. Are you watching and listening for the Lord in the midst of your storm?

*"Trust in Christ despite it all, for he can hush the hurricane to slumber, and lay the storm to sleep."
- Spurgeon*

3. A lesson from _____: Keep your eyes on Jesus. (vv 28-31)

A. Jesus was okay with Peter's request for Peter to walk on the water toward Him.

"The Lord loves that kind of cry, because it is a sign that the person has come to the end of self-reliance and realizes there is nowhere else to turn but to the Lord. Whether from the unbeliever who knows he is helpless on his own or from the believer who has been self-striving for years and has only met with frustration and failure the simple cry, "Save me!" is music to the Father's ears (cf. Psalm 18:16; 69:1-3; 144:7)." - S.K. Weber

B. But Jesus was not okay with his doubting.

4. A lesson from the _____: more than miracle worker, Jesus is the Son of God. (v 32)

A. In spite of previous miracles, this event solidified their faith that Jesus is the Son of God.

B. If it took a storm for you to be more convinced of the Lord, would you be okay with that?

"Faith is not believing in spite of evidence, but obeying in spite of consequence." - Warren Wiersbe

One Step Further:

In my walk with Christ I will:

1. _____ the Lord before, during, and after trials - and victories.

2. _____ the Lord in my storms.

3. _____ the Lord always.

In my walk with others I will:

4. _____ on fellow believers when they step out in faith.
